

INTRODUCTION TO THE EUROPEAN WATER STEWARDSHIP STANDARD

COURSE DURATION	1-day workshop
DATE	20 October 2015
VENUE	Dublin 4
COST	Members: €225 Non-members: €300
COURSE CERTIFICATION	Certificate of attendance (from the European Water Partnership)
WEBSITE	www.leanskillnet.com www.central-solutions.com
BACKGROUND	For firms committed to water management, the EWS Standard is a practical tool for improving sustainable water use with technical advice, risk assessment, (physical, reputational, regulatory and financial) and implementation of strategic improvements through a process of continuous improvement. Implementation of the European Water Stewardship (EWS) Standard allows companies to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify and respond to local water risks Implement a water management strategy Anticipate and comply with local water regulation Build trust with authorities and supply chain Communicate good water performance to consumers and investors
LEARNING OUTCOMES	The workshop aims to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Introduce Water Stewardship concept and the EWS Provide knowledge about Water Stewardship basics such as water impact, shared risk and opportunities, the four Water Stewardship principles and the area of influence Get insight into European Water Policy and major trends that will affect your water management Understand the EWS standard as a s tool to assess your local water risks and design a robust water management strategy Prepare for EWS Certification and beyond Answer your questions
WHO SHOULD ATTEND?	This workshop will appeal to those responsible for water management in industrial facilities including facilities managers, EHS managers and operations directors. It will also appeal to representatives from water authorities, agriculture and large public infrastructure facilities such as airports, hospitals and universities.

Lean Water & Energy Skillnet is funded by member companies and the Training Networks Programme, an initiative of Skillnets Limited funded from the National Training Fund through the Department of Education & Skills. www.skillnets.ie