

Work-Based Management & Leadership Programme

Accelerating Management and Leadership Skills

The Work-Based Management and Leadership programme was developed for working professionals seeking to deepen their managerial and leadership skills, while also achieving university certification.

Course Details

Award: Special Purpose Award (Level 6)

Delivery: Blended, Online, self-paced

Duration: 16 hours + self-directed learning, additional reading and assignments

Register Now

Why this Programme?

Progress your Education – Core learning, skills practice and assessment occurs within the learner's workplace environment.

Progress your Education - Designed for progression from certificate to diploma to degree, to Masters with university-accredited awards at every step:

Industry Relevant – Contributions from academic and thought leaders, offering their best practice and valuable insights on the latest industry trends and core principles

Flexible Learning Delivery – Online access enables learners to study at their own pace whilst using classroom time to practice their skills within various workplace situations.

Who is this Programme for?

This programme is designed for people managers and professionals looking to develop their management and leadership expertise in order to lead teams; deliver on company projects and facilitate career progression.

People Managers responsible for managing and leading teams, large-scale projects and programmes

Managers & Leaders who are looking to reinforce their experience with formal academic qualification

Leaders who facilitate and influence organisational change and business excellence initiatives

Module Content & Structure

This introductory Management & Leadership programme is comprised of learning modules, including theories and skills development in:

- Core Management and Leadership Skills
- Personal Performance in Time Management and Goal Setting
- Understanding Lean Business and Continuous Improvement
- Managing People and Developing Teams
- Running Effective Meetings and Group Problem Solving

The Learning Experience

At Central Solutions, we develop training programmes that reflect an innovative way of learning that is engaging, flexible and includes hands-on practical projects:

Practical Knowledge	Assignments	Assessment	Certification
The Management &amp; Leadership Module delivers practical content in the areas of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Personal Leadership</li> <li>• Managing People</li> <li>• Business Impact</li> <li>• Managing Personal Performance</li> </ul>	During this programme, you will work on two work-based assignments: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Personal Leadership Reflective Essay</li> <li>2. Work Based Presentation</li> </ol>	Throughout the course, learners are assessed continuously via: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Interaction with the learning modules</li> <li>• Interaction with knowledge quizzes</li> <li>• Assignment Completion</li> </ul>	Successful participants of the programme will receive a Special Purpose Award (6ECTS) accredited by University of Limerick, which can be used as a stepping stone towards further programmes

This programme can also be tailored according to your organisation's requirements and objectives as part of an in-house customized corporate training programme.

Our Training Programmes are chosen & trusted by the following valued clients:

Next Steps:

To book a place on the programme, visit our website: www.leanskillnet.com.

For more information on programme fees, call +353-(0)61-503009, or contact us at leanskillnet@central-solutions.com